Arizona Governor Douglas A. Ducey appointed Andy Tobin as Arizona Director of Insurance effective October 12, 2015.

Prior to joining the Arizona Department of Insurance, Mr. Tobin owned and operated a local Farmers Insurance for six years and his own employee benefit company, selling his interest in both in September 2015. Mr. Tobin was also CEO of a local aerospace company employing 200 people for three years until 2003. From 2006 to 2015, Mr. Tobin represented rural Arizona in the state House, serving as Majority Whip, Majority Leader and eventually Speaker of the House from 2011 until 2015. Mr. Tobin served as Director of the Arizona Department of Weights and Measures for Governor Ducey.

Mr. Tobin was elected the National President of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce from 1988 – 1989. In that capacity, Mr. Tobin served as ex-officio board member of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, St. Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital and the Hugh O’Brian Foundation.

As the Director of Insurance, Mr. Tobin oversees the Arizona Department of Insurance, which regulates the Arizona insurance industry and provides information and assistance to insurance consumers. As part of his directorial duties, Mr. Tobin oversees the licensure and compliancy of over 200,000 insurance professionals, the solvency and conduct of over 2,000 insurance companies doing business in Arizona, and the collection of more than $400MM in annual revenue benefitting the state General Fund.
